WRITES OF WAR TO HIS MOTHER

Fuller Rochat Deplores Conditions of Great Conflict, But Says Cause Must Be Fought To Victory.

The following beautiful letter descriptive of war conditions and reflecting the love of a son for his mother, though in the midst of the all absorbing conflict, has been received by Mrs. E. Rochat from her son Fuller, who is in the Navy.

Dearest Mama—

At last, dearest, we are off again for across the mighty Atlantic. We leave tomorrow early and by the time you are reading this letter of farewell we will be leaving Halifax, N. S. for France. We are on our ship now. It is the It was built in Detroit. It is a small freighter, 270 ft. long. We will distribute supplies to all the Allied countries and won't be back for 18 months unless the war ends. Lets hope it ends.

Do you still have the same trouble, or has the warmer weather helped you? I guess I'll have to go through another bad winter. Just think, for winter..... sr5 BaKoffo GvCDas Christmas I will be in Italy, France or England—heaven knows where? It seems each Christmas, fate takes me a little farther away, but just think for what a grand cause we are fighting; for my dear "Old Glory" and my dear ones. I would be willing to die fighting for the country I love and for those ideals of freedom born in me, yes! many times.

Dearest Mama, I don't want you to worry at all about your sailor boy. I am always a good boy and never do anything that I am ashamed of. I always think of my dear far away Pal and how happy I'll be the day I come marching home to you. Then dearest maybe I can rest in peace and sit with you and look at the beautiful trees and flowers. Then God will give us a reward for it will indeed be like Heaven, after the hell we have gone through.

Oh! dear Pal, I could just sicken you folks out West by telling you the sad, awful sights I have seen. We are just beginning to realize we are

TALENTED YOUNG WOMAN DIES

Passing of Edna Poppe Cooper, Poetess, and Wife of Lieutenant Cooper of the Grizzlies Widely Mourned.

The community was given a profound shock Saturday morning when news of the death of Mrs. Edna Poppe Cooper, wife of Lt. Morris Cooper of the Grizzlies reached here. Mrs. Cooper died in Santa Rosa following an operation. She had been in poor health for some years but despite it all, was cheerful and very active in literary and social work up to a few weeks ago.

She was a gifted verse writer and the Muse of poetry inspired her to write many fine stanzas wherein her sensitive responses to the beautiful and hidden mysteries of nature were very manifest. She had the true poetical sense and expressed her thoughts with a charm and style which won her much praise from critics.

Mrs. Cooper was the daughter of esteemed Sonoma valley residents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. Poppe. Some years ago she married Morris Cooper and it proved to be an ideal match. They were lovers and pals and when Mr. Cooper enlisted some months ago the separation was keenly felt by the young wife who finally joined her husband at San Diego after vainly trying to plunge into reportorial work here in Sonoma. She spent many happy weeks with the young lieutenant in the South and he finally departed for Oklahoma. Mrs. Cooper then returned to her parents' here and shortly thereafter was stricken with the last sad illness. Before her passing however, the young husband reached her bedside and she died happily in the thought that he and her good parents were close by as the Great Divide loomed before her and the Angel of Death hovered near. The end came Friday night, peacefully as if in sleep.

On Monday, all that was mortal of the talented and estimable young woman was tenderly laid to rest in Mountain cemetery. Besides her

Parade Will be Feature of The Sonoma Market Day, June 15th, On The Plaza

Hundreds Will March For Noble Cause of Red Cross. Fine Produce and Home Cooking Will Attract Buyers Livestock Will Interest Everybody

Saturday June 15th will be a gala day for Sonoma Valley, for that is a specialty of home preserving, and the day of the big benefit and Free Market and Auction for the Red Cross. It is arousing the greatest interest and contributions of every description are being made and will be the band, which is always an attractive feature under the able leadership of Prof. Schieck.

The Glen Ellen ladies are to make should participate in this parade. It will tell the story of our loyalty and respect for "the greatest of mothers". The parade will terminate on the plaza when the Market will be formally opened and everything put on sale.

The Allies, under the direction of Mrs. Maurice Power are to have children's amusements and children's articles. Already many fine contributions have been made and the little ones will be made happy and given a chance to help in the great day's drive for Red Cross funds.

The market will open at 10:30 a. m. sharp, so buyers should be on hand to get the pick of every thing bright and early. Then too no one can afford to miss the parade. Come early and stay late. Lunch and refreshments will be provided by the Women's club at reasonable prices.

Next Saturday is the day. Mrs. Maurice Power of the Allies Booth for the Red Cross Market requests all donations promised to her or any of the committee. All donations will be thankfully received for any of the booths.

The schools are to be a great factor in making the parade a success. The High School is planning many clever features. The Sonoma Grammar School will turn out 200 strong as will also the other districts. The Native Sons and Daughters have decided to enter a float with soldiers and sailors as the central figures.

The Red Cross members will march and every one of the women are asked to wear white with the head dress and Red Cross insignia. Every grandmother and tot in Sonoma valley in this war, I saw a big hospital train come in yesterday full of wounded Canadian soldiers and a few sailors. Some had arms off, others had lost a leg and many had lost their eyes. One poor fellow had his two arms off at the shoulder and his two legs off at the trunk; they carried him in a wash basket. His mother met him and she fainted. We sailors of America chipped in and bought him a nice box of cigars. He smiled and thanked us. Poor fellow, he is only 24 years old. Too bad God did not take him. I have seen thousands of such cases, once one very sad; but let's be as cheerful as possible for we are going to lick the Kaiser before long.

Dearest mother, when I get over I will give you my address so you can write and do write to Aunt Emma in Brooklyn, she was so kind to me. Well sweet Pal, good bye until I get a chance to write from "over there". With loads of love and kisses, Your own, Fuller

FARE TO S. F. IS RAISED

One Way Ticket To Cost $1.48 Instead of $1.08. As At Present on The Northwestern Pacific.

Beginning Monday it will cost you $1.46 to go to San Francisco from Sonoma instead of $1.08 as at present. The government is putting into effect its rule to raise all rates which have been under 3 cents per mile. This edict will also effect the fare from El Verano on the Southern Pacific. The El Verano fare has been $1.25 will be something like $1.59 plus the war tax.

Miss Henrietta Tallman of Richmond spent a few days this week with her parents.

DIES OF GUNSHOT WOUND THURSDAY

John T. Field Succumbs To Injury Received Two Weeks Ago.

John T. Field of El Verano, whose arm was badly shot away when his dog accidentally discharged a gun two weeks ago is dead. He passed away in a San Francisco hospital where he had been sent by his local physician, following alarming symptoms. Mr. Field's advanced age and the mutilation of the gun shot wound caused him to take a very bad turn this week. On Tuesday he was taken to St. Luke's hospital, but his condition was not regarded as critical until Thursday when he suddenly sank and passed away. His death was a great surprise to the physicians on the case who at the worst thought amputation might be necessary. It was a great shock to the wife and brother of deceased. Mrs. Field was at her home on Riverside Drive when the sad news was broken to her. Mr. Field was an uncle of the Jansen boys and Miss Norma Jansen.

Mr. Field was a retired street-car builder and as nice a man as you would care to meet anywhere. He had a host of friends and was known far and wide for his square dealing, good principles and many fine traits.

He was about 66 years of age and a native of Denmark.

CITY DADS FAVOR ECONOMY

June Session Devoted To Figuring Curtailments To Meet Conditions

The June meeting of the city trustees was a Hoover meeting, for the Board not only received the government request to retrench, but proceeded to do so. In order to continue the oiling of the streets, which so far has cost this season $409, they decided to curtail the street lighting expense and to confine the lights to street corners. Many routine matters were discussed and acted upon including the payment of the following bills: L. V. Emparan-royalty, $17.30; Sonoma city Water Works, $25.00; A. Dumas, labor, $2.50; P. Pascani, labor, $10.00; Cal. Tel. and Light Co. $112.20; J. G. Marey, $13.70; I. Brusky, rock, $102.60; F. DeMartini, labor, $3.75; F. Duhring, supplies, $8.60; Carlisle and Co., supplies, $31.01; F. Canaveri, janitor, $7.75; J. H. Albertson, salary, $15.00; Index-Tribune, printing, $21.00; Kennell, manure, $3.00.

YOUNG BUSINESS MAN WEDS

Julius Pancrazi Is Married To Miss Velma Secord By Rev. T. P. Moran

Julius Pancrazi, the popular young business man and Native Son of Glen Ellen was united in marriage Sunday to Miss Velma Secord by Rev. T. P. Moran in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends.

The bride, who is a charming Napa girl, was attended by Miss Macafee of Eldredge while Ernest Sobbe was best man. After the impressive ceremony of the Catholic church, the wedding party partook of a fine dinner at the Roma Hotel of which Mr. Pancrazi is popular proprietor.

Early in the afternoon Mr. Pancrazi and his bride departed in his car for Truckee to attend the Grand Parlor session of Native Sons to which the groom is a delegate.

The news of the marriage has been received with expressions of hearty congratulations as Mr. Pancrazi is one of Sonoma Valley's most popular and progressive young men. The young lady of his choice is well known here also where she has endeared herself to a large circle of friends. All unite in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Pancrazi much happiness.

BIG CROWDS AT RESORTS

Picnic and Band Prove Great Attractions At Savoy and Fetter's.

The Loyal Order of Moose from Vallejo held their annual picnic at the Villa Savoy last Sunday and hundreds of people attended. The day was thoroughly enjoyable and Mine host Wachin took good care of the crowd. It was an orderly and well conducted picnic in every respect.

Fetter's Springs was the mecca of hundreds of visitors Saturday and Sunday when the Marine Band played for dancing also giving songs and a concert. The proceeds were turned over to the Red Cross.

Mrs. Fred J. Knorre and children who have been visiting for the last three weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Campbell of Sonoma West, returned to the city on Sunday with Mr. Knorre who came up on Decoration day.

Mr. and Mrs. Curley Fletcher have gone down south to reside. President Burris of the Sonoma Valley Bank returned Sunday from a trip to Hanford.

What Sonoma is Doing in War Work

SONOMA is full of the spirit of service in this war and it is with pride that we record the many activities and evidences of splendid effort well directed in this greatest of work. As usual, America's characteristic, Sonoma as other small units of this vast nation, was slow to awaken as a community to the duties that would devolve upon her, but once aroused, she has plunged into the work with fine spirit.

We have a Red Cross organization here of which we may well feel proud. Hundreds of garments have been made by our faithful workers, several hundred members are on the roll, the younger generation in our schools is a busy and valuable auxiliary, the surgical dressing classes are turning out hundreds of bandages, in fact every phase of this merciful work is well cared for in Sonoma, for the heart of the community is pulsating with that feeling of humanity which makes us all akin.

As to other war work, we demonstrated a growing responsibility in the last Liberty Loan, which far exceeded our former responses and was entirely over-subscribed by popular subscription.

If food is to win the war, Sonoma Valley is doing its share to win it on that score also for our farmers are 100 per cent patriotic and with brain and brawn, toil early and late to pile up record crops. New industries are forging ahead here. Idleness is looked on as a disgrace. Sonoma's attitude is to be commended from every point of view.

The present pulse record is no doubt a natural sequence, for with the departure of every boy for the war, with the enrollment of every son, is born a new fervor which gradually diffuses over the face of the community and makes it glow, yes flame with patriotic intensity.

Knocking the Spots Out Of Chinese Lotteries

ONE IS LED to wonder why in some of our most perfectly managed cities of California, such as Alameda and San Jose, both with their city managers and wonderful environments, that the publicity of Chinese lotteries is flaunted so widely. The mockery of blind pigs is not in it when it comes to the pig-tail evil of gambling, and countless raids and clean-ups seem to only make the chinks and their patrons, keener for the game.

To the onlooker, it is amusing to behold the antics of the reformer trying to stamp out the Dragon and his natural proclivity for gaming and seeking to prevent followers marking tickets in the various companies operating the lotteries.

Recently San Jose had a small sized feud because it was discovered that the brave fire laddies of the Garden city played the Chinese lottery and that the chief did not stop the practice. The chief defended himself by declaring that marking a ticket forty ways did not impair a fire laddy's bravery.

Alameda with regularity, pinches the wily Chinese and the 'heap save' nuts who frequent the alluring headquarters of the almond-eyed gamblers. They raid with regularity and seldom if ever get a conviction.

Oakland's experience is the same and on a larger scale.

Here is a case of trying to enforce a law counter to public opinion and not only is it an expensive process, but it brings the majesty of the law into disrepute. There is also a big temptation for graft where such laws are an open and shut proposition and that is where the evil of political protection comes in and civic rottenness is invited. A law that can not be enforced is worse than no law, for it makes a travesty out of one of our most sacred instruments. If a jury smiles, tolerant and convinced that it is not a crime to mark a ticket in a China lottery and turns the accused free every time, why take up the time of officers of the law and courts, who are paid good salaries to stage a farce? Why not give them real work and real duties to perform, especially these days when everyone should work and earn what they are paid for.

When city managers chase phantoms of this kind on which to make a record and permit publicity accruing from it to cast a shadow on the horizons of their cities, it looks bad and gives rise to speculation as to why raids are staged and what is happening behind the scenes. There are political games and civic tricks that knock the spots out of any Chinese Lottery ticket ever made. If some of our sister cities in California would start putting out the punks in high places they would have to look farther than Chinese thresholds before they completed their clean-ups.

WE'VE BEEN trying to dope out who was the winner in that conventional scrap between two Santa Rosa papers. The Press Democrat said nix on the Republican plan to hold a convention to endorse a candidate for Congress. The Republican and the Petaluma Argus stoutly defended the program. It has always been a Progressive myth, this "let the dear people rule". As a matter of fact, a candidate vouched for by a convention is often more acceptable to the people, for the majority give neither time nor attention to picking a man and frequently have something slipped over on them by demagogues.

Let politicians proceed to pick a man by the convention system to pit against Congressman Lea. Lea should worry!

As to the principle of it, we do not think that politicians, hand picked or otherwise, are ever going to be candidates for a seraphic choir. A machine pattern politician has this in his favor—the people know what they are up against and if rogues fall out, they are sure to spill the beans. These saintly, of the people, politicians, are hard to figure and spend money like drunken sailors in their wild zeal to put into effect countless reforms through the highly touted Commission's with which California is at present infested.

GOVERNOR STEPHENS has been invited to a picnic in Grass Valley. It won't be such a picnic for him later on, so he'd better go while the going is good, for that "dry" platform is going to make it hard sledding this election.

JUST WAIT until Henry Ford gets his U-boat chasers out on the seas! We bet Lizzie's brother will be there a million when it comes to routing submarines.

THE FIRST place captured by Americans "over there" sounded like Cantigny or Tincanny but is sounded good to us.

BOYES SPRINGS NOTES

The B. S. I. C. committee that has charge of the benefit for the fire department met on last Wednesday evening and concluded to have the benefit on Saturday and Sunday, June 29th and 30th. There will be an open air concert by a band of music, entertainment and dance on Saturday night at the theatre and on Sunday afternoon there will be a base ball game between the business men of Boyes and the business men of Sonoma. Racing, Cowboy stunts and a demonstration by the Boyes Springs Fire department, fighting fire laying hose etc. This will all take place in the Ball park. This will be two shows for the price of one. All tickets will admit the bearer to the entertainment and dance on Saturday night and to the Ball park on Sunday. The price of the tickets will be within the reach of all, 50 cents for the two shows.

Our lumber king, Fred Boynton, will be the Captain of the business mens baseball team the day when Boyes plays Sonoma on June 30th. Fred has been pitching lumber of late and may do the pitching of ball on benefit day. Alexander has not got much on Fred when Fred is right.

Park commissioner Jas. Baines is a good receiver, (first payment on a lot being a specialty with him) and may do the receiving at the ball game on benefit day. Jim certainly is big enough and ought to be able to receive Fred's pitching. "Time will tell."

Our "Mayor" is in his glory at present. He was appointed as a committee of one to get the ladies to assist at our fire department benefit. Some ladies man, this "Mayor" of ours.

The home of our little "Red Devil" (our fire engine) has been all newly shingled and is now a big asset to Boyes Springs. With a beautiful park and a nice engine house, Boyes Springs is certainly setting a good example for the rest of the smaller towns in the "Valley of the Moon."

Quite a large crowd of visitors were up last Sunday and enjoyed their visit to Boyes and to the valley. It is too bad that there is not a faster train for them to return home on as it makes their stay short and will very likely have a tendency to keep many from spending their Sundays in our grand valley in the future.

One often hears of a corn fed hog, but we have one in our midst that feeds on young ducks. If anybody thinks this is not so, then bring on your young ducks and see how quick this young "Porky" will devour them, might be well to add that this "Pig" will need no dressing when ready for the table as he will be already stuffed with young Quack, Quack's.

The ladies of Boyes Springs, under the leadership of Mrs. E. Koenig are going to have a booth on Red Cross day at Sonoma city on Saturday, June 15th. The ladies are figuring to have the best booth on the grounds and have already received many handsome and valuable gifts for the occasion from the residents of Boyes. These gifts will be sold to the highest bidders and some of them will be sold also over the counter, all for the benefit of the Red Cross. The ladies of Sonoma and vicinity will have to look to their laurels as they will surely be outdone by the ladies of Boyes Springs for this worthy cause. Ladies of Boyes, do your best to help your leader bring home the honor to the Springs, as to the best booth and the best receipts for the good of the Red Cross on this day. All those wishing to donate, will kindly do so with Mrs. Koenig.

Dr. Parramore is getting back some of his old "Ginger" again. He was appointed on several of the committees for our fire benefit, hard to keep the "old boy" out of harness when there's something doing.

"Old" Col. Brady was full of "Pep" last week, but has reverse English this week. The Colonel is not feeling any too well at present.

What has happened to our Healdsburg friends, have not seen anything of any of them for quite a while. Hope the promised fish will come along soon, now they say fishing is good around Healdsburg. Mike C. and company take notice.

There certainly is a boom on at Boyes Springs, a new park, new engine house, Steve's new grill, Minges restaurant, Ryan's (our next sheriff) new livery stable, Warner and Brodie's new billiard parlor and quite a number of new homes, all built in the last few months. In the language of the little "Gag", "can't you beat it".

The many young friends of Harry Barmester of El Verano are sorry to learn that his lame knee will cause him trouble for some time. He is under the care of Dr. Thomson and although his knee is in a cast, Harry goes to school and is to graduate which is much to his credit.

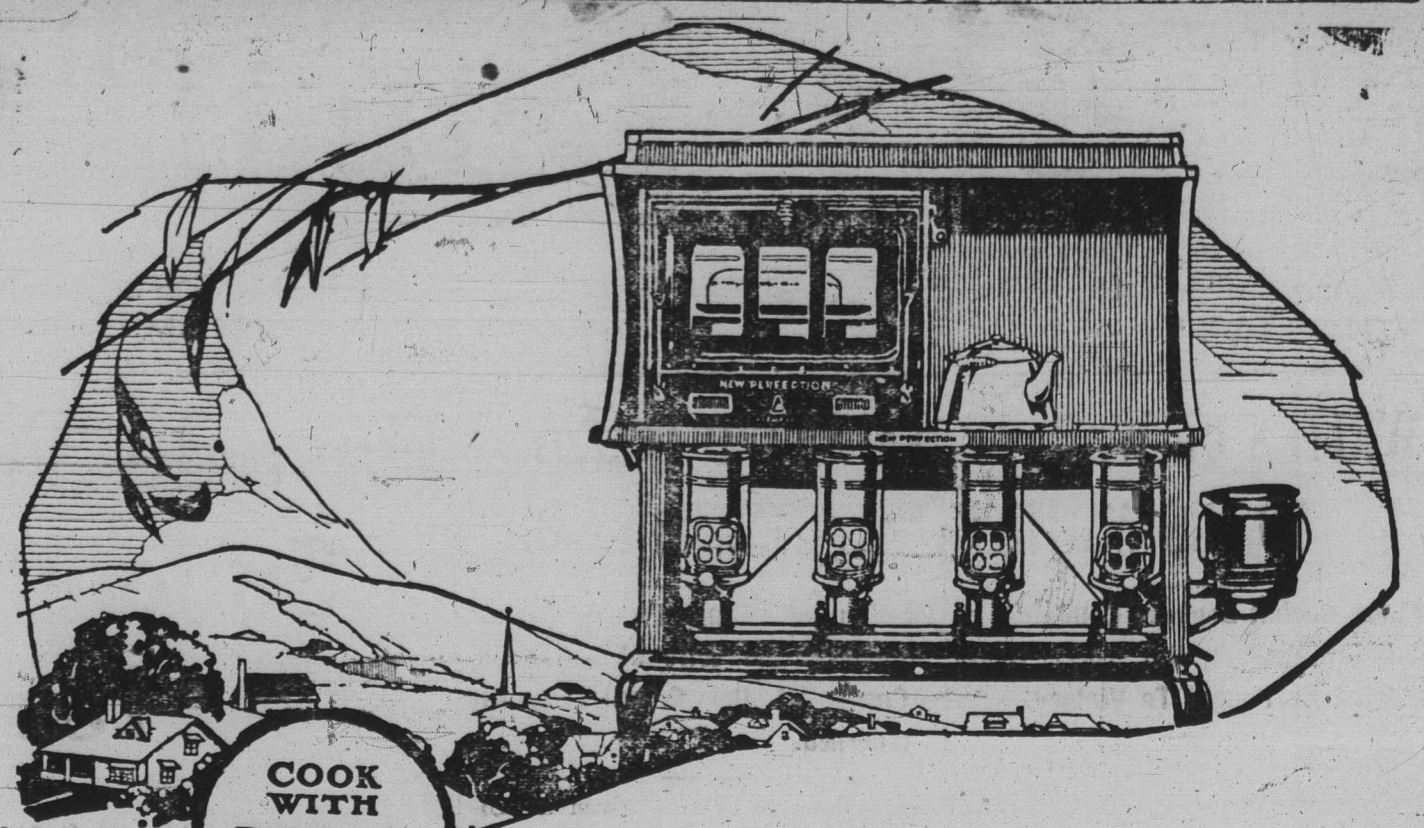

Mrs. Wm. Helberg has been suffering from an injury to her knee accidentally received at the school house Red Cross benefit at Watnaugh some weeks ago.

Miss Matilda Baccala who has been touring the South had the pleasure to visit her friends and former neighbors, the Marzo family near Los Angeles. She is having a delightful trip, visiting among other places, the wedding place of "Ramona", heroine of Helen Hunt Jackson's book of that name.

The departure of the Lydiard family from Sonoma is keenly regretted by many friends. They have sold their fine orchard and are to return to Santa Clara County. Mrs. Lydiard is one of our handsome matrons and has been active in church and club work since coming here.

Miss Nettie McConchoe has been made principal of the El Verano school. She takes the place of Prof. Hall who goes into the army. Miss McConchoe is to have as one of her assistants, Miss Bernice Hocker.

Our automobile reporter brings in word that Granville Harris has purchased a Dodge car. Granville liked horses more than any man we know but says it takes a little more speed these days than formerly, in order to keep up with the times.

VIOLETS FROM

FRANCE RECEIVED

Just a little violet from the battle fields of France. Just a token of love from a son in the far away land, plucked from a quiet spot where enemy guns had failed to strike. On Saturday morning Mrs. George Zane received from her son, George Jr., a letter containing the fragrant flowers, and no gift was ever received by the mother that carried more love with it than the two little violets pressed in the letter.

While on duty in the first line trenches George Zane found the little cluster of modest violets growing in a crevice in the earth, carrying with them the thoughts of home and the sunny land of California. He picked the flowers and mailed them in his first letter home, which was received by Mrs. Zane on Saturday. —Woodland Mail

CURRENT EVENTS ala MEDBURY

Have you noticed that our City Marshal is there with the bells or I should say the bell we ring for our boys "over Seas" at noon every day.

Jim has got the new time down pat now even if he did get confused on the saving daylight stunt when it first started

And just at twelve o'clock he reverently rings the tidings - we send across the water.

Oh say! Can't you see the boys over there smile as they picture in their minds

Jim Albertson ringing the bell in old Sonoma town and a tear stealing down the cheek of every Mother dear

When she hears that sound and utters a silent prayer at the first tap of that bell?

Oh yes, Jim will be blessed for his patriotic duty; well and faithfully done

And though he is not a sky-pilot a-ringing a church bell

We bet St. Peter will remember his part in the war and will say "Welcome to our city" some day when he goes higher.

And when it comes to current topics (hot air current I mean) had you noticed that Solomon in all his glory

Was never arrayed in colors like Frank Sprague's office building

The boys put one over on Frank and his hut one day the barrister was at the county seat.

They gave the shack the once over and then some with the paint brush

Joe Ryan was chief scene painter, and red and yellow are his favorite colors.

The boys told Frank when he got back that they guaranteed them to be fast colors

And Frank says he don't know much about the high spots but he thinks they're right

And his worrying over his reputation, one lawyer with a canary cottage and now

Another with futurist trimmings decidedly jazzy in effect

Frank says it will reflect on the legal fraternity but we know they shine by their own light, so we should worry

And over the top is Old Glory; the boys planted a flag on the furthest peak the day they spilled the paint

And there is nothing the matter with that; it floats as proudly over Frank's colorful shack as the White House

The flag of democracy, sure enough!

Rosalie—Their Niece Gertrude Johannsen
Winnifred—(Winnie) Irma Adler
Millicent—(Millie) Herschel Whitmore (Daughters of Mrs. O'Brien)

Choruses of Sun bonnet Girls and Overall Boys

Act I—Scene

Country Home of Mrs. O'Brien. Opening chorus—"Happy Life on the Farm". The country folks have come to welcome home the O'Briens who have been in the city to educate the daughters, with money provided by Uncle Bob. Mrs. Gable is sure that they will be pleased to have the country folks welcome them home. Mr. Gable doubts it. The O'Briens ignore the generous welcome. Mrs. O'Brien tells of her experiences in "When I was in Paris", "Old Joe" is told that his services are no longer needed. He bids Rosalie a sad "Farewell". The O'Briens find fault in "First its This, Then its That". Martha and Nick are interested in the pictures in the well, and Millie and Winnie tell of their trip in an aeroplane. Rosalie and Mrs. Gable are satisfied that the O'Briens are not really educated, but only polished pebbles. Revelations concerning the identity of "Old Joe" seriously affect Mrs. O'Brien. Chorus, finale—"She's Going to Paint."

Act II—Scene same

Opening chorus—"Working on the Farm". Mrs. O'Brien, Millie, Winnie and Uncle Bob express their surprise in "Its Shocking". Nick has troubles in "Mother Sent Me Out". Sunbonnet girls disapprove of city styles, but admire their plain sunbonnets in "Sunbonnet Chorus". Mrs. Gable tells a little town gossip in "Its All Town Talk". The truth regarding the stolen gems comes out and Old Joe's identity becomes known. Mrs. O'Brien asks forgiveness of Rosalie for their harsh treatment of her. Uncle Bob bids the O'Briens to leave. Rosalie pleads for them and a reconciliation is effected. Bob tells of his love for the country life in the "Waving Cornfields". Mrs. O'Brien and daughters undergo a marvelous transformation. Joy again in "Out on The Farm"—Finale.

GARDEN FETE PROCEEDS $50.00

Red Cross Benefit at Mickelsohn Chase Gardens Highly Successful.

Over a hundred paid admissions were registered at the entrance to the attractive Mickelsohn-Chase gardens last Saturday afternoon when the a la fresco affair for the Red Cross was given there through the courtesy of the hospitable owners. A handsome American flag was stretched high above the gateway and could be seen for many blocks by those coming to the fete and when they arrived they found the gardens attractively decorated with red pennants while red crosses of handsome geraniums had been fashioned on the lawn and were most effective.

The Junior Red Cross girls and others sold refreshments. There were card tables and many other diversions, both remunerative and enjoyable.

Under the capable direction of Mrs. Ralph Hotz, a splendid two part program had been arranged and was given out of doors at the Mickelson place.

Mrs. Emparan sang "A Perfect Day" and for an encore, "The Star Spangled Banner."

Miss Emily Poppe was heard in "A Long, Long Trail."

The High School girls gave a number of part choruses from "The Belle of Barnstable". Myrtle Minkel rendered a character song in costume "Antonio, My Boy." Master Power made a decided hit with "Long Boy." Gladys Groom repeated her success as given at a recent Womens Club affair. Henry Weber Jr. was heard in one of the new patriotic songs and for an encore sang "Just a Baby's Prayer at Twilight", with little Maxine Hunter posing to illustrate this beautiful ballad. Mrs. Ralph Hotz gave "Mother Machree" and Mrs. Duhring spoke on the Red Cross.

These interesting features were divided into two programs, one at 2:30 and the other later in the afternoon. Between the two, the crowds wandered over the pretty grounds and either participated in the card or croquet contests or patronized the refreshment booths. When the day was done and the proceeds all counted, it was found that the Red Cross would come into $50 through the generous patronage of those who attended and the liberality of the gracious matrons who arranged for it.

Why the Earth Cannot Explode.
The theory is frequently advanced that planets and even suns sometimes explode and that the earth may some day blow up like a bombshell. No celestial body the size of the earth could possibly explode. If the entire molten interior of our globe could be replaced with nitroglycerin and detonated the explosion would not lift the earth's crust. In other words, if we assume that the crust of the earth is from fifty to a hundred miles thick, it would require something much more powerful than even nitroglycerin to burst the shell. It is necessary only to do a little figuring to see that the pressure of the earth's crust at a depth of from fifty to a hundred miles far exceeds the pressure exerted by the most powerful high explosive. Hudson Maxim.

Reckless.
A colored man and his finest girl walked into a drug store. The man bought a one-cent picture postcard and a one-cent postage stamp. As he started to place the stamp on the postcard the colored woman walked toward the front door.
"Wait a minute, Susie," said the colored man. "I'm not near through." The colored man turned to the clerk and bought a package of chewing gum. As the couple walked out of the drug store the colored man was heard to remark: "There's no limit to me, Susie, when I'm out with you."—Indianapolis News

COAL OIL SOLVES PROBLEM

The United States Fuel Administration has urged upon the American people the necessity for conserving coal and has asked that its use be entirely dispensed with where possible. This request if complied with will strengthen our country in two vital ways: First, it will make more certain the supply of coal second, it will relieve the railroads of the strain of moving coal for domestic use when there are other and more important things for them to apply their equipment to for the successful prosecution of the war.

Here in the western part of the country the use of coal is particularly serious, for it has to be brought to us over many hundreds of miles from Utah and Wyoming. Freight rates are increasing 25 per cent, and the high price is a big factor in our homes.

The Kerosene Oil Cookstove comes nearer solving the problem than any other device, it is clean and sanitary, insures a cool kitchen in summer, and is as handy as a gas or electric cookstove.

During the week beginning June 9, the dealers throughout the territory are featuring the New Perfection Stoves in their show windows as this is about the season and time to buy.

MISS PEMBERTON HAS SERIOUS FALL

Miss Annie Pemberton had the misfortune Wednesday to fall from a ladder while at work in her garden and broke her left arm at the elbow and her right wrist. The ladder tipped with her, precipitating her to the cement walk. While the injury is very painful, Miss Pemberton is bearing her misfortune bravely and her host of friends trust the fractures will mend rapidly. Dr. Thomson has placed both arms in plaster casts.

SUFFERING FROM COLD

If you shiver in frosty weather, if you have cold hands and feet, if colds are stubborn and frequent, then your blood may be thin and impoverished.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

has been correcting this condition for nearly fifty years. It possesses rare powers for creating natural body warmth, for charging summer blood with winter richness and strengthening both throat and lungs.

The Norwegian cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is now refined in our own American laboratories which makes it pure and palatable.
